

English Literature Scoring Rubric 2020-2021

Team Name: _____ School: _____ Judge: _____ TOTAL POINTS: _____

	25 to 30 points	15 to 24 points	10 to 14 points	0 to 9 points	Points Awarded
Creative Piece	Creative piece effectively modeled on the original work in an identified voice, style, or image. Rich and insightful details develop theme and/or tone. Well-paced and sequenced. Creative, highly imaginative, and engaging. Expands audience’s understanding of the original work Showing strong understanding of the original work.	Creative piece adequately modeled on the original work in an identified style, or image. Relevant details develop theme and/or tone. Reasonably-paced and sequenced. Creative, imaginative, and engaging. Expands audience’s understanding of the original work Showing satisfactory understanding of the original work.	Creative piece partly modeled on the original work in an identified style, or image. Limited details develop theme and or tone. Weakly-paced and sequenced. Somewhat creative, imaginative, and engaging. Expands audience’s understanding of the original work Showing some understanding of the original work.	Creative piece inadequately modeled on the original work in style, or image. Includes no elements to develop theme and/or tone. Improper or inappropriate pacing and sequencing. Minimally creative, imaginative, and engaging. Shows minimal understanding of the original work
Rationale	Develops and explains clear and convincing rationale for choice of presentation. Soundly and logically explains “fit” between the original and created piece	Develops and explains rationale for choice of presentation. Strong effort in explaining “fit” between the original and created piece.	Attempts to develop and explains rationale for choice of presentation. Limited effort in explaining “fit” between the original and created piece.	Insufficiently develops and explains rationale for choice of genre. Inadequate effort in explaining “fit” between the original and created piece.

English Literature Scoring Rubric 2020-2021

Team Name:

School:

Judge:

TOTAL POINTS:

Performance	Consistently speaks clearly; controls pace, volume, tone and expression to reinforce meaning and engage the audience. Consistently and effectively uses gestures, facial expressions and eye contact	Speaks clearly; adequately controls pace, volume, tone and expression to reinforce meaning and engage the audience. Uses adequate gestures, facial expressions and eye contact.	Lacks clarity; inconsistently controls pace, volume, tone and/or expression to engage reinforce meaning and engage the audience. Periodically uses gestures, facial expressions and eye contact	Rarely shows clarity; lacks control over pace, volume, tone and/or expression to reinforce meaning and engage the audience. Rarely uses gestures, facial expressions and eye contact
---------------------------	--	---	---	--	--

NOTES: